A.A. Degree: University Preparation, Emphasis in Liberal Studies (Teacher Education at CSU Stanislaus)

ABOUT THIS EMPHASIS

This emphasis is especially designed for students who plan to transfer into California State University, Stanislaus, Liberal Studies major or into their Blended Teacher Preparation Program. It is designed for students interested in teaching in public and private elementary schools. The program provides a broad overview of the fields of natural science, social sciences, humanities, composition, mathematics, and critical thinking in order to prepare the future teacher for the standards-based curriculum required in public schools. Further education at the university level will be required to fulfill all requirements for a teaching credential authorizing service in California public schools.

Note to students: If you are interested in transferring to a four-year college or university other than CSU Stanislaus to pursue a bachelor's degree in this major, it is critical that you meet with a Modesto Junior College counselor and/or refer to the ASSIST website (www.assist.org) to select and plan the courses for your major. Schools vary widely in terms of the required preparation for this major. The courses that MJC requires for this Area of Emphasis may be different from the preparation requirements needed for the Bachelor's degree at a different university.
