

English for Life and Work Orientation Information

Before you can register for an English for Life and Work class, you need to take the CASAS placement test in Yosemite Hall 141 on the West Campus to decide what level is best for you. After the test you will attend an orientation in Yosemite Hall 235 where you will receive some information about the English for Life and Work program and instruction on how to register for classes.
