PRESS RELEASE – For Immediate Release

Chicago White Sox Select MJC's Cooper in MLB Draft

(Modesto, CA) – Modesto Junior College freshman catcher, Jacob Cooper, was selected today in the 20th round of the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft today by the Chicago White Sox.

Cooper, a graduate of James C. Enochs High School in Modesto, hit .286 with 6 doubles, 4 triples, 20 RBI's and 7 SB's during the 2015 season. He also was a 2nd team All Big 8 Conference selection.

According to MJC Head Baseball Coach Zeb Brayton, "Jacob is an extremely hard working young man, obviously very talented and we're proud of what he's accomplished at MJC and what he's going to accomplish in the future."

For more information contact Coach Brayton at (209) 575-6274.
