

Modesto Junior College
Academic Senate
Resolution FL06-F
Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL)

Proposed by: Annaliese Hausler-Akpovi and Adrienne Peek

Whereas: Modesto Junior College faculty members regularly seek professional development activities; and

Whereas: Having the opportunity to participate in faculty-led professional development courses, workshops, and seminars at MJC could enhance teaching effectiveness and create a more cohesive faculty community; and

Whereas: Offering faculty members the opportunity to contribute to a faculty professional development newsletter and website highlighting classroom research and instructional innovation could promote excellence in teaching;

Therefore: Be it resolved, that the Academic Senate support the development and creation of a Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL) within the Office of Instruction to promote faculty development.

Be it further resolved, that the Academic Senate establish an ad hoc committee to facilitate and guide the CETL development process at MJC

First Reading:

Final Reading:

Disposition: November 16, 2006, referred to the Academic Senate Professional Development Committee for further discussion