ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS*

I. Although there is no GPA Entrance Requirement, there is a 3.25 GPA Exit requirement. Therefore we do need your transcripts in order to work with you while you're in the program. A copy of your PriatesNet transcripts is fine. If you are a High School student, provide your High School transcripts please. Attach these records to this application.

II. Indicate how you meet the writing proficiency requirement by checking one of the following boxes.

- English 101 eligibility by MJC placement process
- Completed English 50 or higher with passing grade.

Highest Engl. Class completed: _____

Semester/Year/College: _____

Grade for class: _____

III. Indicate the source of your recommendation letter. See attached recommendation form for instructions.

- If you are applying as a current college student, your recommendation must be from a college faculty or counselor who is recently familiar with your skills and abilities.
- If you are applying as a new college student from high school, your recommendation must be from a high school faculty or counselor who is recently familiar with your skills and abilities.
- The recommender needs to write a letter of recommendation on school letterhead as well as fill out the MJC recommendation form and attach it to the letter.
- To facilitate application, tell the recommender that if they need more time to write letter/form, they can send the Honors Coordinator (Eva Mo moe@yosemite.edu) an email from their school email account (.edu acct) indicating that a recommendation letter is forthcoming. It will move your application forward without being held up by the recommendation process.
