Dr. Niles Goins will discuss what true collaboration looks like as true collaboration is necessary, at both the micro and macro-levels, in order to foster student success.

Dr. Niles Goins is a professor of communication at California State University, Fresno. Dr. Niles Goins received a Bachelor of Arts in Communication at Oakwood College, a Master of Arts in Organizational and Small Group Communication at Howard University, and a Doctor of Philosophy in Organizational and Small Group Communication at Howard University.

Dr. Niles Goins uses cultural approaches to teach Organizational Communication, Small Group Communication, Gender Communication, and Special Event planning courses through a variety of methods: in-person, hybrid (tablet), and fully online. She joined the faculty at California State University, Fresno in Fall 2007. Dr. Niles Goins has taught several courses at Howard University, the University of Iowa, and George Mason University, including Gender Roles and Communication and Organizational Communication.

Dr. Niles Goins has several articles and book chapters published, including pieces in The Routledge Handbook of Applied Communication Research, Communication Studies, and Journal of the Alliance of Black School Educators. She is also co-editor of and contributor to a published book about the experiences of women of color in the academy. It is entitled, Still Searching for Our Mothers’ Gardens: Experiences of New, Tenure-Track Women of Color at ‘Majority’ Institutions.

Dr. Niles Goins is President Elect of the Western States Communication Association, serves on the Executive Committee of the National Communication Association, and is Immediate Past President of the Organization for Research on Women and Communication.
Join us for a look at the new ASSIST public site. Learn what’s new, what’s changed, and what you can expect in May 2019. In addition, we will share what resources and support will be available for campuses.
Session Information

BREAKOUT SESSION #1
THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 2:00 - 3:30 PM

| California Community Colleges | Central Pacific
| Facilitated by Bob Quinn, CCCCCO |
| California State University | Schoolhouse
| Facilitated by Karen Simpson-Alisca, CSU Chancellor's Office |
| University of California | Steamboat
| Facilitated by Nancy Purcille, UCOP |
| Independent & Private Institutions | Tower Bridge
| Facilitated by Megan Lawrence, KPSAH |

BREAKOUT SESSION #2
THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 3:45 - 4:45 PM

| UC TCA: Embracing Change | Schoolhouse
| Facilitated by Nancy Purcille, Jennifer Forsberg, & Katherine Fitzpatrick |
| Embracing change in 2019 and beyond: building on what we learned in 2018 with New ASSIST, AB 705, UC Transfer Pathways, etc. and the impact on the UC TCA and articulation. |
| Paddling Faster: ADT to Private College Major | Tower Bridge
| Facilitated by Dahne Watson |
| An overview of how Fresno Pacific University is integrating and communicating Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) pathways into similar FPU bachelor’s degree programs |
| Articulation Integration Across Campus | Steamboat
| Facilitated by Ceci Herrmann, Erica Lassen, Jenni Robinson, and Letitia Senechal |
| How is the role of the articulation officer situated at your campus? Do you notice that staff or faculty in other areas do not seem to “get” articulation? Are you identifying opportunities to make a difference but not sure how to move forward? The presenters will examine the landscape relevant to integrating the expertise and work of articulation into the needs and objectives of other stakeholders on campus. |
| AB 705 and Prerequisites | Central Pacific
| Facilitated by Michelle Pilati, Rio Hondo College and Craig Rutan, ASCCC |
| AB 705 (Irwin, 2017) is legislation regarding student placement practices in order to access transfer level coursework with parameters around when a student could be required to take remedial coursework. In this breakout, the requirements of student placement and regulations regarding prerequisites on Course Outlines of Record will be clarified in light of the potential impact on articulation. |
BREAKOUT SESSION #3
FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 9:00 - 10:00 AM

Hot Topics in CSU GE Transfer
Facilitated by the CSU CO: Dr. Jason Sexton, Quajuana Chapman, and Karen Simpson-Alisca

This session will address some of the biggest challenges within the purview of the CSU GE transfer, exploring three topics that have been consistent flashpoints of intersegmental conversation among AOs and the CSUCO: the appropriation of the external exam chart; the calculation of pass along units from quarter to semester units; and the development of stretch courses.

Guided Pathways Program Mapping: How and why Articulation needs to be at the table.
Facilitated by Carolyn Jackson and Mark Osea

This session will provide a brief history of how Bakersfield College and Cabrillo College accomplished this project, “Program Mapping 101” insights, tips, tricks, and pitfalls, as well as provide support and rationale of the need for Articulation Officers and Counseling faculty to be front and center in the mapping process.

C-ID Staff Meet and Greet
Facilitated by C-ID Staff and C-ID AO Group Members

Come meet the C-ID staff and the C-ID AO subgroup. Brief C-ID website training and tips will be shared to facilitate painless submission and use of C-ID web resources. A brief audience question and answer session will conclude the presentation, time permitting.

BREAKOUT SESSION #4
FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 10:15 - 11:15 AM

Maximizing Student Credit
Facilitated by Alexa Dunne, Ashford University

A general overview of Ashford University’s transfer credit policies, including what we accept, how we evaluate incoming credits, and how our military-friendly policies impact the transfer credit process.

AP, IB, ADT, GE- The Law of Unintended Consequences
Facilitated by Lynn Fowler

To annotate or not to annotate!? Join your colleagues for a discussion of the scope and complexity of the use of AP, IB, and other external examination scores in the awarding of ADTs and in transfer to campuses of the CSU.

Campus Data Entry Processes: Are We Helping or Hurting Students?
Facilitated by Kara Maas, Christa Clark, and Letitia Senechal

From ASSIST to Student Transcripts: A conversation about the importance of consistent curriculum management data and an understanding the negative impacts non-consistent data can have on our students from reviewing student transcripts to processing transfer credit.
