Focus on Poland

- The capital and biggest city of Poland is Warsaw. Poland is the 9th largest country in Europe by land mass, has a population of over 38 million, and the official language is Polish (the alphabet of which consists of 32 letters).
- The highest point in Poland is the peak of Rysy in the Tatra mountains, however, the majority of the country is flatland.
- Famous polish born people include: Marie Curie, Nicolaus Copernicus, Johannes Hevelius, and Frédéric François Chopin.
- 90% of Polish citizens complete secondary education, 50% have academic degrees.
- The most popular sport of Poland is football (soccer).
- The name “Poland” is derived from Polonie, which translates to “People living in open fields.”
- Poland boasts the most winners of the “World’s Strongest Man” title.
- It is also an established fact that the biggest portion of any Polish grocery store is the Candy section.
