

Submitting your MJC Application

www.mjc.edu/apply

These are the steps you need to complete as new or continuing student (if you have missed any). You do not have to complete these steps in order, some may be completed out of order.

You are viewing Step 1: Apply Online

Apply online at www.mjc.edu. Once your application is processed, MJC will send you an email with your MJC Student ID (w#).

Step 2: College Orientation (CORE STEP)

For first time log-in users, the ID is your “w” number using a lower case ‘w’ and the password is your 6 digit birthdate. See the orientation web site for more information at www.mjc.edu/orientation.

Step 3: English & Math Placement (CORE STEP)

If you have graduated within the last 10 years and recently applied, the information on your MJC application will be used to give you English and math placement. Visit www.mjc.edu/studentservices/enrollment/testing for English and Math placement options.

Step 4: Educational Planning (CORE STEP)

Click here to visit the Counseling web site for more information on Walk-In, and appointment options.

Step 5: Apply for Financial Aid

Complete the FAFSA at fafsa.ed.gov. Or if you are a DACA or undocumented student, you can apply for the Cal Dream Application at www.caldreamact.org

Step 6: Register for Classes

Register for your classes and pay fees.

MJC Special Programs: MJC offers a wide range of support programs that provide students with individualized support for a variety of needs. You may qualify for more than one program. Check out this video to learn more:

Tips

- If it has been over one year since you applied or attended a class, you will need to complete a new application.

If it is your first time applying you will need to create an account. If you have applied for any CCC before you may have already have an account.

The screenshot shows the Modesto Junior College logo in the top left corner. Below it is the heading "Application to College". Underneath the heading is a bolded instruction: "Before applying to college you must first have an OpenCCC account." This is followed by two lines of explanatory text: "The OpenCCC single sign-in account allows you to access the online services of the California Community Colleges." and "OpenCCC is a service of the California Community Colleges Chancellors Office. The information in your account is kept private and secure." At the bottom of the page, there are two options: a blue link "Create an Account" and a dark blue button "Sign In". A yellow arrow points from the text "First Time applying" to the "Create an Account" link. A blue arrow points from the text "Applied previously" to the "Sign In" button.

First Time applying

Applied previously

First, you will need to create an account or log into an existing account if you already have one.

The screenshot shows the OpenCCC account creation page. At the top, there is a blue header with the California Community Colleges logo and the text "OpenCCC". Below the header, the main heading is "Create Your OpenCCC Account". A sub-heading reads "You Must Have an Email Address". A purple box highlights a list of email providers: Google Gmail, Yahoo Email, Microsoft Outlook, and Other Providers. A purple arrow points from this box to the text "This only applies if you DO NOT have an email address and need to create one." At the bottom, there is a blue button labeled "Begin Creating My Account" and a link "or Return to Sign In". A green arrow points from the text "Let's get started" to the "Begin Creating My Account" button. A red arrow points from the text "If you have a personal email address already, then click on 'Begin Creating My Account.'" to the same button.

Social Security Number

The Social Security number is used as a means of identifying student records and to facilitate financial aid.

I plan to apply for admission to college or financial aid.

The Social Security Number is required to claim tax credits for higher education costs known as the American Opportunity Tax Credit in accordance with the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997.

Federal law requires the California Community Colleges to provide specific information to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for the purpose of filing an information return (IRS Form 1098-T "Tuition Statement") for each student in attendance, with a few exceptions.

The information required by the IRS includes the student's name, address, Social Security Number (SSN) or Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN/iTIN), and enrollment status, as well as the amount of tuition paid or billed, and scholarships received. (26 C.F.R. 1-60505-1(b)(2)(ii).)

Failure to provide a correct Social Security Number or TIN while claiming tax credits for specified education expenses may result in a penalty levied against the student by the IRS in the amount of $100, per year, until the missing or incorrect information is provided (26 C.F.R. 1-60505-1(e)(4)).

In addition, California Education Code sections 68041 and 70901(b)(7) authorizes the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office (CCCCO) to collect information you submit through the OpenCCC Online Student Account and CCCApply Online Application for Admission for the purposes of completing and submitting California College admission applications and financial aid on your behalf.

Further, information acquired by the CCCCCO is subject to the limitations set forth in the Information Practices Act of 1977 (Title 1.8 (commencing with Section 1798) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code). Compliance with these laws is identified in the Privacy Policy.

Please indicate the type of number:

Social Security Number Taxpayer Identification Number

By providing my Social Security Number (or Taxpayer Identification Number) below, or indicating that I do not have a Social Security Number or decline to provide one at this time, I confirm that I have read and understand the federal regulations provided above, and the state regulations provided in the Privacy Policy.

Your Social Security Number must be accurate to ensure the integrity of your permanent record.
