

Declining or Returning Pell Grant Funds

The Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2012 reduced the maximum timeframe (Lifetime Eligibility) during which a student is eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant to a maximum of six (6) years (12 semesters) or 600%. The U.S. Department of Education will track each student's Lifetime Eligibility Used (LEU) among all institutions.

You can learn more about LEU calculations on the Federal Student Aid website:

www.studentaid.ed.gov/types/grants-scholarships/pell/calculate-eligibility

You can view your LEU on the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Student Access Web site:

If you wish to decline or return Pell Grant funds within the award year to preserve eligibility for future enrollment periods, you must submit this completed form to the Student Financial Services Office. You may decline undisbursed 2018-2019 Pell Grant funds for one or more semesters within the award year. You may return all or a portion of your current year funds no later than June 30, 2019 to allow for adequate processing time.

DECLINE PELL GRANT FUNDS

If you wish to decline 2018-2019 Pell Grant funds, initial the term(s) you wish to decline:

- _____ Fall 2018
- _____ Spring 2019
- _____ Summer 2019

RETURN PELL GRANT FUNDS

If you wish to return all or a portion of your 2018-2019 Pell Grant funds, report the amount you wish to return:

Amount to be returned: $ _____

Note: attach your check or money order with this form. Allow 5-7 business days to process.

I hereby decline Federal Pell Grant funds for which I am eligible with the understanding that these funds may not be available to me once the award year is over. Additionally, there is no guarantee that I may be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant in the future because eligibility is determined annually with the submission of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).
