CONSUMER INFORMATION

In accordance with federal regulations set forth by The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, below is a summary of consumer information that must be made available to all students at Modesto Junior College (MJC). Each topic listed gives a brief description of the information that must be disclosed and explains how it can be obtained. If you need assistance obtaining information listed or you would like a paper copy, contact the Student Financial Services Office in person or by Email.

ACCREDITATION

This information can be found on the MJC website at Accreditation.

AWARDING & DETERMINATION OF AID BASED ON FINANCIAL NEED

The Expected Family Contribution or (EFC) is used from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine how much a student can be awarded. To be able to award a student, the FAFSA information is considered and subtracted from Modesto Junior College's Cost of Attendance. Please refer to our website for more information on the Cost of Attendance.

If need still remains after this calculation is made, students may qualify for financial assistance. Examples of this include but are not limited to: the California College Promise Grant (Fee Waiver), Federal and State Grants, Work Study Programs, and Loans. For more information on types of financial aid go to Awards.

CLERY ACT

Information can be found on the MJC website at Campus Security

CONSTITUTION DAY INFORMATION

In order to comply with the federal regulation requiring the development of educational programming to acknowledge Constitution Day each year, Modesto Junior College celebrates with a free, public Constitution Day event on campus. Students and staff have access to U.S. Constitution Day educational resources.

COST OF ATTENDANCE

Information can be found at Cost of Attendance.

DISABILITY SERVICES

The Modesto Junior College Disability Services Department defines disability as “a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities typically performed by an individual such as caring for ones’ self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing and working.” For more information go to Disability Services. Links to the American with Disabilities Act and California Chancellor’s Disabled Student Programs and Services can be found on the DSPS page under the “Mission Statement and ADA” link. Additional information regarding students with disabilities can be found at the Subpart E of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 publication page at ADA Publication.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL AID

Most financial aid is awarded and based on students’ having financial need. This need is used to determine eligibility. Financial Aid is predominately funded through the federal government. In order to qualify for financial aid a student must meet minimum requirements as referenced at Qualifications.

Limitations to financial aid eligibility apply to those who already received a bachelor’s degree. These students may only gain eligibility for the California College Promise Grant (CCPG – Fee Waiver) and are not eligible for Pell grant funding.

Students who are enrolled in more than one school or institution at the same time may only obtain Pell Grant from one college. It may be possible for a school to pay a student enrolled in one of its eligible programs for courses taken at another eligible school, if those courses apply to the degree or certificate in the first school’s program. More information on this process can be obtained by clicking on Consortium.

FACULTY

Information on the college’s faculty and instructional personnel is available through MJC’s on line catalog. Go to MJC Faculty

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 20 U.S.C. 1232g, and the Government Code §552.001 et seq., are respectively federal and state laws providing for the review and disclosure of student educational records. Modesto Junior College, Student Financial Services Office will not permit access to or the release of personally identifiable information contained in student educational records to any party without the written consent of the student, except as authorized by FERPA. Students may complete an online Consent form to release their information to a third party.

FRAUD

Modesto Junior College is required by law, in accordance with 34 CFR Part 668.14 (g) to report any evidence of fraud to the U.S. Office of Inspector General and perpetrators will be prosecuted.

In accordance with Federal regulations requiring institutions to report individuals who purposely provide false or misleading information in order to receive student financial aid, Modesto Junior College will report to the U.S. Office of Inspector General any individual committing fraud on an application for financial aid, or any individual who fraudulently manipulates the financial aid programs or process for personal gain.

Cases of suspected fraud, including knowingly misrepresenting family or financial application information, purposeful certification of false statements as true and correct, or intentional falsification or misrepresentation on or alteration of documents used in the financial aid process that results in the receipt of aid, will be reported for possible collection of funds and/or prosecution.

Examples:

- False claims of independent student status
- False claims of citizenship
- Use of false identities
- Forgery of signatures or certifications
- False statements of income
