- IX. Chair Report-May Lee, ICC Speaker: ICC Clerk stepped in for Speaker in her absence. Clubs can send reports to ICC Team before the meeting to have certain information made public to students, faculty, and the community before the meeting.
- X. ASMJC Executives Report-Javier Hernandez Loza, ASMJC Vice President: Thanked everyone for attending and working at Spooky Night. The event was successful with over a thousand attendees. Continuing with FLOW. There will be food trucks on November 29 on East campus and on December 6 on West Campus. December 6 will be the last FLOW of the fall semester. Cram Night is December 7 in the East Campus library from 5 to 10 p.m. There will be food, tutors, and professors there to support—totally free.
- XI. Advisor Report & Discussion
- a. Passed out certificates to show ASMJC’s appreciation to clubs (Astronomy Club, Cheer Club, Musician’s Guild, Computer Science Club, and Visual Arts Club) that helped with Spooky Night in one way or another. Reminded the group that there is a strict, three-week timeframe for submitting paperwork for club fundraisers—minimum four weeks advance. November 25 is the last day to submit any fundraiser forms. Encouraged clubs to plan ahead and get them to her in advance. No meetings, events, or activities can occur during MJC finals week. Can volunteer for Cram Night. Contact Program Specialist (Carmen De La Cruz) for more details, questions, or fundraiser ideas.
- XII. Adjournment: David Castillo from the Electronic Music Club moved to adjourn the meeting. Joshua Carillo from the Visual Arts Club seconded. Motion passed unanimously with no abstentions. Meeting adjourned at 1:42 p.m.
